Cycle racing seems due for another boom. Last Sunday's monster opening at the Vailsburg Track, Newark, when over 7,000 people paid admission at the gate, augurs well for the sport. The entry list numbered 120 individual riders, including all the best professionals and the pick of the amateur stars in the metropolitan district. Next Sunday marks the second outdoor meet of the seems, when the entry list is expected to be much larger. There will be two professional contests and three amateur races, and nearly every star in cycledom will be on hand. One of the contests arranged for next Sunday's programme is a five-mile ENGLISH LAD NOT TO GO
